SAVE IRELAND'S FORESTS STOP THE SALE OF COILLTE

WITH THE LOSS OF APPROX
1.1 MILLION ACRES OF OUR LAND

- Coillte (The Irish Forestry Board) made 300 million euros profits in 21 years and only paid 2.5 million euros to the State.
- Coillte are now 178 million euros in debt. Where have the profits gone ?
- Bertie Ahern is chairman of a Swiss Finance company interested in buying Coillte.
- The public forests should be the inheritance of Irish children and if managed wisely they can help to secure our future.
